Y. M. C. A. SEC'Y GASSED AT ARGONNE

DAVID L. SMITH, IN CHARGE OF WORK HERE, HAS NARROW ESCAPE IN FAMOUS BATTLE.

David Smith, local executive secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who was gassed at the Argonne on September 26, agrees absolutely with General Sherman's definition of war.

Smith was serving as a Y. M. C. A. secretary when inducted into Company A of the Forty-eighth Machine Gun Company, Ninety-first Division, and gives a vivid description of the Argonne engagement.

"The German methods of securing information of allied troop movements were almost uncanny," said Smith. "We moved to the Argonne following the battle of St. Mihiel, and although it had for four years been one of the most quiet sectors of the war, the night we arrived the Germans threw up a tremendous barrage, sent out raiding parties, and succeeded in capturing several French soldiers who were still occupying the front line trenches.

"Upon the second day of the advance we were lying plastered against a hill when the German aeroplanes flew over our position and gave the range to the German artillery, which succeeded in plunking a constant rain of shells, which burst dangerously close. To make bad matters worse, the German fliers dropped dozens of bombs around us. That they failed to wipe us out entirely seemed almost miraculous, but our company suffered very few casualties in that advance. The Germans then mixed the fire of their big Berthas with gas shells, and before I could adjust my mask I had gotten quite a dose of it. After five hours I succeeded in making my way back and spent six weeks in an American base hospital."

Smith, after being discharged from the hospital, saw service in Belgium, where he was on the morning of the signing of the armistice.

COUNCIL HOLDS REGULAR SESSION

Refuses Foundry's Petition for Damages Done to Plant by Boys of Town.

The City Council met Monday night, Trustee Cunningham presiding in the absence of President G. W. Holston. The meeting was taken up largely with routine business and the consideration of monthly bills. Such bills in the sum of $693.10 were presented by the city clerk and approved by the finance committee.

Other matters brought to the attention of the board were as follows:

The Enterprise Foundry Company asked the city for reimbursement in the sum of $100 for damages done to their plant by mischievous boys of the town. The damage, according to the letter, consisted chiefly of broken windows, the communication setting forth that the company considered the city in a measure responsible for the damage because of inadequate police protection. While making no promise as to settlement for the damage, the board instructed the clerk to advise the foundry company that the council would co-operate with them to the end that the guilty persons be brought to account.

A bill for $140 for nurse hire was read. This bill, presented by E. Page, was for a nurse's salary paid by Mr. Page during a recent attack of smallpox. Mr. Page was cared for at the county hospital. The bill was not allowed.

A petition from a number of property owners asking for additional street lights at Commercial and Spruce avenues, at Spruce and Railroad, on Railroad between Spruce and Magnolia, and at Railroad and Magnolia, was referred to the street committee.

A letter from the Chamber of Commerce, setting forth that that organization had spent $92.10 in supporting the recent city bond election and asking reimbursement from the city, was read and the clerk instructed to draw a warrant for the amount.

A letter from T. C. Rice, County Recorder, returning a check recently sent him from this city for the recording of certain realty transfers in this city, was presented. Mr. Rice advised the board that the law provides for the recording gratis of property transferred to county legislative bodies for public purposes.

A request from the Land Company, asking a refund of $1.62 taxes recently collected from a soldier who was buying a piece of city property from the company under contract, was given favorable consideration and the clerk instructed to return the money.

Fire Chief Truax reported six fires in the city during June, with a property loss of $3075. Of this amount, $3000 was represented by a fire at the Catalytic Chemical plant.

Ordinance 104, providing for the lithographing of the bonds of the $129,000 issue voted in this city June 10 and specifying the form of the bonds, was introduced by Trustee Healy and approved by the board.

A petition from the South San Francisco Athletic Club for permission to conduct a boxing exhibition in this city Thursday night, June 10, was favorably received and the permission granted.

The matter of repairing two city fire hydrants was brought up. W. J. Martin for the water company stated that, inasmuch as the water was furnished the city free, the company considered the city should stand the expense of repairing the hydrants. Agreement was reached when Mr. Martin offered to have the work done at the city's expense. Double hydrants will be installed.

The city recorder reported $16

FEARS FOR LIFE

Frank Curry, colored, and a confessed morphine fiend, on Thursday loitered around the streets for several hours and finally appealed to Police Chief Conrad for protection against two colored men who, he alleged, had threatened to take his life. "Cooney" and "Doorpop" were the only names of the men he could give the police department. Chief Conrad, after listening to his story, investigated the matter and concluded that Curry's fear was the result of hallucinations from the use of morphine, and ordered him out of town. Curry left, still declaring that "If 'Cooney' found him he was a dead man sure."

LARGE CROWD SEES BOXING EXHIBITION

Six Fast Bouts Mark First Fistic Show of Year in This City.

A crowded house Thursday night witnessed the first boxing contest staged this year at Metropolitan Hall. The card presented was, in the main, good, six fast, snappy bouts being put on with few waits between. Mickey Joyce acted as announcer, George Flynn as referee.

In the first mill Battling Carlo substituted for Pete Daley, who had had two fingers injured during the day. This bout was given to Mike Verna, Carlo's opponent, and did not meet the full approval of the crowd. Neither boy had much edge on the other.

In the second event Jack Quinn got a decision over Ad Remy. It was a fast go and Quinn had little the advantage.

The third mill furnished the comedy for the evening, Frank Fardello, short and muscular and stolid as a wooden soldier, being matched against Willie (Wild Bill) Rogers, who overtopped him by a head and worked like an animated jackknife. The decision went to Fardello at the end of the second round.

The Hooster Kid took the decision over Sergeant McCormick in the fourth event. The two were fairly matched and the Kid had but little to the good over his opponent.

The crowd followed the fifth bout closely because of the especial popularity of one of the fistic artists, Henry Costa, who at the last minute substituted for his brother, Al Costa. Henry entered the ring without any training, but rendered a good account of himself, although he lost the decision to his opponent, Charles Jones. The two mixed furiously, their battle being the only one of the evening to be marked by knockdowns, both lads taking the count of nine in the second round.

The main event of the evening was between Art Sharkey and Battling Savage. The decision went to Sharkey, but only the referee could see why. If put to a vote of the spectators it would have been called a draw.

On the whole it was a satisfactory show and the South City Athletic Club should crowd the house at every exhibition if it can keep up the pace set by the first event.

taken in by his office during June, the clerk $1110 during the same time.

City Clerk Smith reported $13,311.10 in the city treasury July 1.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES AGAIN IN HARMONY

Brown Withdraws Resignation; Eight New Teachers Appointed for Ensuing Year.

E. D. Brown, clerk of the school board, has withdrawn his resignation which was filed two weeks ago, after a disagreement with the other two members of the board, and the difficulties of the school trustees have been satisfactorily adjusted.

At the meeting of the board on Tuesday last the following new teachers were appointed to serve for the ensuing year:

Miss Helen Carmody, Miss Emma Johnson, Miss Lucile White, Miss Maud Miller and Miss Leah Nyland for the Grammar School; Miss Eugenie Shaw, Mrs. Elsa Browne and W. R. McNair for positions in the High School.

Several improvements were ordered, including painting the school buildings and paving the yard.

District Superintendent Adams reported an average attendance for the last session of 581, an increase of 56 over last year, notwithstanding the enforced vacation and consequent poor attendance due to influenza. Indications are for an enrollment of about 700 in the Grammar Schools and about 75 at the High School for the coming term.

It was found necessary either to construct a two-story building or move two classes to the High School building. The trustees are giving the question further consideration.

A. HEIN PAINFULLY INJURED AT MILL

Red Hot Corrugated Bar Driven Through Right Foot After Previous Accident.

August Hein, boss roller of the Pacific Coast Steel Mill, is at the South San Francisco Hospital suffering from two painful injuries received on Thursday.

In the early forenoon a red hot bar whipped itself entirely around Hein's neck, burning him painfully. This was treated at the emergency hospital at the plant and Hein returned to work after about an hour.

Shortly before noon the second accident occurred. A red hot bar buckled while passing through the rolls, and before Hein could avoid it the steel rod had been driven directly through his right foot between the heel and ankle.

Dr. T. C. Doak, who is treating the injuries, made an X-ray of the wound and found that the bones of the foot were fortunately untouched.

On Friday morning Hein had shown good progress, although suffering considerably.

STEEL MILL WORKMAN TAKEN TO JAIL FOR OBSERVATION

Fred Lichner, a German, who has been working at the steel mill for two or three months, was taken to the county jail at Redwood City Wednesday afternoon for observation as to his sanity, was, on Friday, committed to Agnews. Lichner, who has been staying at Wolthers' rooming house, began acting queerly Wednesday morning and in the afternoon seemingly went completely out of his head. Complaint was made to Chief of Police Conrad, who hurried to the man's room and found him tearing paper off the walls and creating considerable disturbance. It took three men to put the handcuffs on Lichner and get him out of the house and into a machine. Little is known here as to where he came from or whether he has any relatives.

DR. NORTHCOTT SENTENCED TO JAIL

CONVICTED SLAYER OF ELIZABETH INEZ REED IS GIVEN INDETERMINATE PRISON TERM AT SAN QUENTIN.

"It is the judgment of this court that the defendant be sentenced to the State prison at San Quentin," was the sentence of Superior Judge Buck which condemned Dr. Ephraim Northcott to an indeterminate jail term at 11:25 o'clock last Saturday morning.

Judge Buck passed sentence following his denial of motions of the defense for a new trial and arrest of judgment. The length of the penitentiary term was not fixed by the court, as the new indeterminate sentence law fixes the term for second degree murder at from ten years to life imprisonment. The length of the term is up to the State prison board, which may grant parole after the minimum of ten years is served.

Immediately after the pronouncement of sentence, attorneys for Dr. Northcott gave notice of appeal to the Supreme Court. Judge Buck fixed bail at $3000 cash or $10,000 bonds, and Dr. Northcott went back to the county jail.

Dr. Northcott seemed well prepared for the court's judgment and was not visibly affected. He sat down, and his attorneys then gave verbal notice of intention to appeal to the Supreme Court for a new trial. They asked the court to fix bail.

Sentence was imposed after the court had listened for two and one-half hours to arguments by Attorneys H. H. McPike and Hall C. Ross on the motion of the defense for a new trial and after District Attorney Swart had argued against the granting of the motion.

Dr. Northcott was accompanied into court by his three attorneys and Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson of San Francisco sat beside District Attorney Swart. Mrs. Northcott was not in court. Neither were Frances Cronin, Marian Ayers, Mrs. Drennan or any of the others.

Dr. Northcott was on Wednesday released on bail in Redwood City, pending an appeal. Wednesday night he surrendered himself to Lieutenant Charles Goff of San Francisco on a grand jury indictment charging him with the murder of Eleanor Anderson. He was released on $3000 cash bail.

Dr. Northcott was accompanied to the Hall of Justice by his attorney, Francis Mannix. His bail in the Anderson case was fixed by Superior Judge Michael Roche.

He will appear before Judge Roche for arraignment in the Anderson case next Tuesday.

PROBATION OFFICER LOOKS INTO DAMAGE AT FOUNDRY

County Probation Officer Francis Rapp was over from Redwood City Wednesday afternoon investigating the case of a number of small boys of this city accused of breaking windows and otherwise damaging the plant of the Enterprise Foundry. It was found that the young miscreants had broken 127 windows and in several places had damaged the plaster by throwing rocks against it. Mr. Rapp and Chief of Police Conrad collected evidence enough to definitely fix the blame. chief pretty definitely, but no arrests have as yet been made owing to the absence at present of Judge Buck from his office on a vacation.

If anybody should find a check for a large and luscious amount bearing the imprint of the city of South San Francisco and the signature of William J. Smith, the genial city clerk, blowing about the street, that person is invited to return it and receive Mr. Smith's thanks. It happened like this: Mr. Smith was walking along the street with a number of unsealed envelopes in his hand Wednesday afternoon, when a gust of wind frisked the aforesaid check out of its envelope, around the corner and down an alley. Mr. Smith started after it hot foot, but the check distanced him and disappeared. Incidentally, Mr. Smith was not long in getting to the bank and stopping payment on that check.

Saving Daylight

There is weeping and gnashing of teeth in the large cities at the repeal of the daylight saving law. But they are not narrow minded about it. They admit that the law has been working a hardship to farmers, and that there is plenty of argument in favor of its repeal. If the farmer sets his clock in contradiction to railroad time, his schedule will get considerably twisted when he is shipping cream and produce to the city consumer.

But the whole trouble is so easily cured that it is difficult to understand why it ever became a vexed question. It is simply a matter of phraseology. We can call any time bedtime, if we want to go to bed.

City folks can have what they want without hurting the farmers, if they prefer to start work an hour closer to sunrise. Make employers get together and arrange that offices shall open and close an hour earlier. Places that open at 8:30 and close at 5:30 can open at 7:30 and close at 4:30. They will not work any harder, and they will have more light in the evening all the year round.

Do It Right

The proposal to give public lands to returned soldiers needs a certain amount of watching. It is an excellent one, if it does not operate to the soldiers' disadvantage.

It has been charged that the present scheme is to select land lying in desert districts or in swamps, and to impose upon the soldiers the work of reclamation. If this is true, it is an unconscionable imposition.

The purpose of such a scheme should be to reward the soldiers—not to enable the nation, or rather, that part of it that did not go to war, to profit at their expense. There are millions of acres of public land ready for cultivation at once. Give that to the discharged veterans; the swamps can be drained and the deserts irrigated at the public cost—not at the expense of the soldiers.

The loan offered to the soldiers to furnish them with the necessary funds would not discharge the nation's debt, as the advances must be repaid at 4 per cent. If we are calling the grants a free gift, make them so in fact as well as in name.

The man who sits down and waits for fortune to come to him usually finds it knocking at the door of the other fellow.

Some men are blessed with unlimited brains, but have no sense with which to apply them.

We generally think of peace and rest as an ideal combination. Just now the combination seems to be peace and unrest.

"Come on in; water's fine!" all the dry States have been saying. Now the wet States have their opportunity to form an opinion.

The German press is already pronouncing the peace treaty "a scrap of paper." What would the world be worth if promises did not hold nor treaties bind?"

The eyes of the wet interests are now turned to President Wilson as the Great Possible Lid-Lifter.

These July days make us feel that "a place in the sun" would be quite appropriate for Germany.

Lloyd George broke all precedents by signing the peace treaty with a fountain pen. It is not the first time that the gentleman has created a new precedent.

Annually the housewife wonders why Providence has decreed that canning cherries, making currant jelly and the haying season should all come at once.

The query, "How's your poor head this morning?" and the term "katzenjammer" have become antiquated during the last few days.

The completed but unsigned treaty between Germany and Japan at least fulfills the purpose of giving us some very interesting summer reading.

The War Department has issued a summary showing that if the war had continued through 1919 the United States was thoroughly prepared to meet it. But it had taken two years to bring about this condition. Moral: Be prepared.

Sing a song of peace time, a treaty neatly signed,
Four-and-twenty little wars in the world we find,
Going right along with guns and troops and rations,
Isn't that a dainty dish for the League of Nations?

Who dares predict what wonderful things this queer old world may see within the next twenty years?

For some years the women of the Western States have had full suffrage. In the Middle States they have partial suffrage, and in most of the Eastern States they just suffer for the vote.

President Wilson was at sea the last week—but probably not more so than he was at different times in Paris during the peace conference.

War-time measures will now take an unmeasured vacation.

OPERATIONS START AT JAPANESE STEEL PLANT

Tokio, June 1.—(By mail)—The Oriental Steel Company, the new Japanese $25,000,000 steel corporation, has begun operations and plans to turn out steel on a gigantic scale. The combine is an outgrowth of restrictions enforced by foreign countries on the export of steel during the war. The company will get its ore from the Tung Chung mines of China and from Korea.

The works are at Tobata, on the northern coast of Kyushu, one of the industrial centers of Japan. The workshops are modeled after the largest steel works in the United States and Europe. Every attention will be paid to the comfort and well-being of the staff and the workmen.

MEANS

Real Service to You

The United States produces six and three-fourths tons of coal to every inhabitant. You will be so glad to know this in December, even though in July it seems a matter of complete indifference.

With universal peace as its avowed object, that League of Nations is producing an ungodly amount of scrapping.

These interminable trade disputes raise wages and raise the devil, but they don't raise wheat or increase the factory production.

That little devil, Cupid, is always pulling off some new stunt. Eloping by aeroplane is now coming into vogue—doubtless, however, because dad can not hope to overtake them in his tin Lizzie.

The picnic season has come, and sandwiches and hard-boiled eggs are much in favor.

New Things in Costume Jewelry

The charm of novelty belongs to "costume jewelry," which is chosen for the sake of color or because it accentuates a style in dress, or merely because it is smart and fashionable. However fine and beautiful real jewels may be their owners tire of always wearing the same pieces and take to passing fads with as much relish as if they were jewelless. Just now there is a vogue for necklaces and beads of all kinds, with Chinese and East Indian designs featured among numberless others, including old Venetian and American Indian ideas.

In costume jewelry, that is jewelry which is not made of precious metals or stones, there is one abiding favorite, and that is the necklace of good pearl beads. Other things may come and go, but they go on forever, because they are so like the beautiful genuine pearls. Good, even strands of pearl beads cost more now than in days before the war, but there is a great range in prices for them, depending upon color, luster, degree of destructibility and the evenness with which the beads are strung.

The handsomest Chinese beads, of imitation jade and carved ivory and of composition or glass, are often strung on very handsome silk cord. The strand usually supports a large medallion of carved ivory or jade, or whatever material makes the bead, with some mystic figure or character wrought in it which looks equal to warding off bad luck and is probably intended to make its wearer feel secure. Very handsome and brilliant jet beads, sometimes alternating with sparkling crystal beads on the string, have many admirers among older women, while smooth white coral, or white splashed with pale pink, are liked for girls and young women. Everyone envies the owner of a strand of carved ivory beads and next to everyone wears a necklace of the most brilliant red in opaque beads, of all sizes and shapes. The color of every jewel under the sun is imitated in glass beads and in mock jewels set in metal and joined by metal chains. Among these women find the necklace that matches their frocks or those that provide a contrasting color touch. Happy she is who has among her possessions a strand of amber beads, and thrice blessed is the owner of a necklace of opals. Then, the strands of gold or silver beads which one sees so rarely, are again in favor, for these have their imitations that answer the purpose of costume jewelry. It would not be easy to find a style of jeweled neck chain or necklace which is not now represented.

AUDITORIUM FILLED AT Y. M. C. A. FESTIVAL

Stirring Address on "Meaning of America" Made by Judge E. E. Cunningham, Who Scores "Reds."

Appreciative applause greeted the offerings of the entertainers and musical artists who appeared Thursday evening on the Y. M. C. A. program at the High School Auditorium. A large, receptive audience filled the auditorium at the rise of the curtain and enjoyed every number of the well-selected, perfectly balanced program.

The address of the evening was made by Judge E. E. Cunningham, who selected for his subject, "The Meaning of America." Tersely, but in an address which showed his full familiarity with his subject, Judge Cunningham held the audience interested throughout the progress of his address.

The form of American government was analyzed by the speaker, from national affairs to county offices. "We have," said Judge Cunningham, "government within government, with authority under authority."

"The meaning of America is government under God, of, by and for the people: it means liberty regulated by law; that is, submission and obedience by all to law."

Judge Cunningham in his address scored the spread of anarchy and bolshevism. "The spawn of modern materialism," were the words by which he designated the "Reds."

At the conclusion of the entertainment, favorable comments on the excellence of the program were freely made.

SAN MATEO TO VOTE ON FIRE PROTECTION

$40,000 Bond Issue Will Be Put to Electors of That City Early in September.

A special election will be held in San Mateo late next month or early in September to vote on a proposed $40,000 bond issue for improved fire protection. Here is about how the proposition will be presented:

Electric fire alarm apparatus, $24,000.

New motor chemical engine with pump, $12,000.

Moving high pressure pump from city library lot to basement of the city hall, $4000.

It has also been suggested that a proposition for the sale of the district fire houses in Hayward Park, San Mateo Park, the Heights and at the corporation yard be included on the ballot.

Definite action toward the calling of the bond election was taken at the meeting of the city trustees of San Mateo Monday night, when Engineer Hammatt presented an estimate of the cost of the proposed improvements to the fire protection system. The engineer's estimate included 1000 feet of new hose, but this will be purchased from the general fund. The board has referred the matter to City Attorney Kirkbride to prepare the necessary papers.

PASQUALE SANTINI IS HOME FROM SERVICE

Pasquale Santini reached home Wednesday of this week after nearly two years of army service, having been inducted October 2, 1917. Santini left the United States in August, 1918, and after five days in England was sent to France. He saw action in the Limy-Thiacourt, Muse, Argonne and Marbach sectors. He was in Germany with the army of occupation for thirty-five days.

Though he saw action in plenty, Santini came through unscathed. He has many interesting experiences to tell and speaks with especial feeling of English food, French weather and journeys in boxcars, on one occasion sixty-five men being transported for ten hours in one car.

THE SUMMER SERVANT QUESTION SOLVED

ELECTRIC APPLIANCES perform many-sided service in the household. Whether you have a servant or not, housework will be greatly simplified if you will begin to make use of the electricity available at every switch.

The shortage and high cost of domestic labor, particularly during the summer months when the orchards and canneries offer more flattering inducements for female occupation, make it necessary for the housewife to give more of her attention to the routine household duties.

ELECTRIC VACUUM CLEANERS, WASHING MACHINES and IRONS are only three of the electrical servants you can put into service by merely pressing a button. Each one is necessary for the proper and efficient running of any household. They perform the routine duties of the home in less than one-third the time, without any of the inconvenience, back-breaking labor or drudgery of the old-style methods of keeping house.

Every housewife should have these three appliances. Your electrical contractor-dealer will tell you how easily they may be purchased and how you will be more than repaid for your expenditure in a very short period by the saving in help and laundry money and in physical labor. Your electrical dealer will gladly demonstrate. Ask him.

ADMITS TO CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT

Louisville Man, Arrested at Woodside, Attributes Downfall to Un-named Woman.

Arrested at Woodside on telegraphic warrants charging embezzlement of more than $40,000, William Jacob Glossbrenner of Louisville, Kentucky, attributes his downfall to failure to heed the counsels of his wife.

"My wife is an angel. If I had listened to her advice I wouldn't be in this mess. But men don't pay attention to angel wives these days," so Glossbrenner told Sheriff Michael Sheehan and Under Sheriff H. W. Lampkin, arresting officers.

Glossbrenner is held by request of Chief of Police Ludloy F. Petty of Louisville. He has been in hiding at Woodside, where he was employed as an accountant for the last three months. He is alleged to have robbed his Louisville employers, the C. C. Bickel Company, cigar manufacturers and importers.

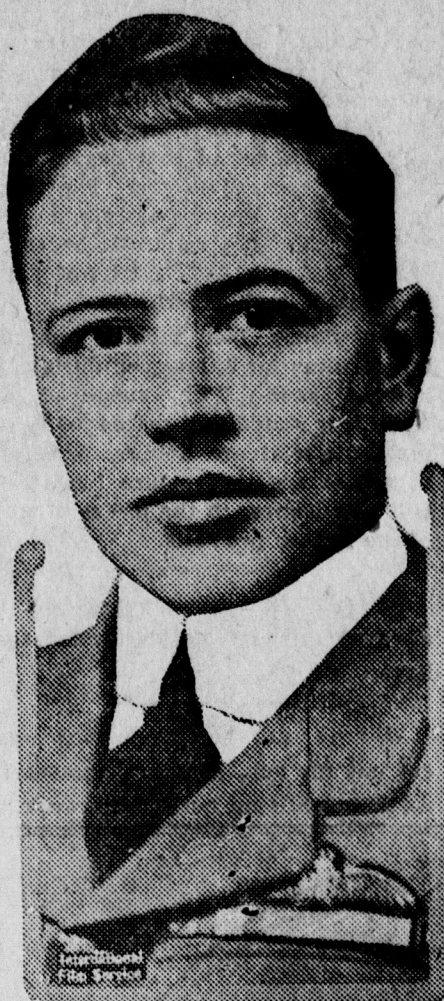

Glossbrenner accused a woman of being directly responsible for his downfall. He said she was now at San Diego. He refused to make further reference to her or divulge her name.

THIEF SUSPECT ADMITS TO DESERTION FROM ARMY

Willard J. Anderson, 19 years old, who claims to be a deserter from the army, was captured by the Burlingame police on the Fourth of July on the rear porch of the home of City Clerk James R. Murphy at 1128 Douglas avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy had gone to Santa Cruz for the holidays and no one was at home. A neighbor saw Anderson lurking about the premises and called the police. Officer Ed Oliphant responded and found Anderson standing on the back porch, having unlatched the door by slipping his hand through a hole in the screen. He had a large chisel in his pocket and was unable to explain his presence there.

Anderson says he was a member of Company C, Development Battalion, and deserted from Camp Kearny. He says his home is in Chicago.

A good deal of time is wasted trying to bring people to their senses who haven't any.

MORE STRUCTURAL STEEL
BEING MADE IN EAST

Pittsburg, July 10.—The May report of the Bridge Builders' and Structural Society indicates that 49 per cent of the total structural capacity of members of that organization had been contracted for. The figure involved in this percentage was 88,200 tons. The report is based on a total output of 180,000 tons of structural steel each month.

The figure last month was the largest thus far announced during the current year. With increased activity it is stated that prices for structural material are holding firm, and prospects are that before long there will be advances in the prices of some of the lighter products.

The best that some people can do always seems to be the worst they have.

NINE ARE INJURED IN AUTO COLLISION

C. C. Conrad and William Fischer of This City Assist in Caring for the Injured.

Chief of Police Conrad and William Fischer of the South City Garage narrowly escaped being mixed up in the auto accident which occurred Wednesday evening near the foot of the Belmont grade and in which nine persons were injured. Conrad and Fischer were returning from the county seat when about 8:15 they were passed by a machine, which afterward turned out to be that driven by Daniel J. Garside of San Francisco. Conrad reports that this auto, which was traveling at a rapid rate and swerving wildly from side to side, narrowly missed the one in which he and Fischer were riding. Looking back, the local officer was just in time to see Garside's car collide head-on and with terrific force with a machine coming from the other direction. Conrad and Fischer hurried to the scene of the accident and helped, with the aid of a commandeered third machine which came up, to get the injured to the Red Cross Hospital at San Mateo. Garside was pinned beneath his car. Two cases of beer were found in Garside's auto by County Traffic Officer Brown, who came to the scene in response to a telephone message from Conrad. Both cars were wrecked.

The injured were: Mrs. P. Leichter of Mill Valley, internal injuries; D. D. Butler of San Francisco, internal injuries; P. Leichter, fractured knee; Daniel Garside, San Francisco, fracture of right thigh; Paul Seiler, San Francisco, cuts and bruises; Dennis Cunningham, San Francisco, cuts and bruises; M. J. Tye, San Francisco, bruises; Thomas Carr, San Francisco, lacerations and bruises.

It is reported that Garside's dog, which disappeared shortly after the accident, showed up at the hospital soon after Garside was taken there and barked loudly until admitted to his master's bedside.

GOAT GIRL OF GREECE

Red Cross official photograph showing a little goat girl of Greece; behind her is Mount Parnassus. She is just one of the two hundred million people in central Europe and the Balkans who were hit hardest by the war. Germany absorbed the life blood of central Europe, the raw materials and food, in order to keep up the Hun military machine and feed the German people. Disease developed among all these war-stricken people; the allied blockade on Austria and Turkey and Bulgaria stopped the imports of such necessities as cotton. Today fourteen races are looking to America for goods. They want to buy, and will buy, after the peace treaty automatically abolishes the blockade.

SAN BRUNO HOUSEHOLD DESTROYED BY FIRE

The San Bruno home of George Wisniewski, a riveter, was destroyed by fire Saturday night with a loss estimated at about $4000. Wisniewski's aged mother was the only member of the household at home and was unable to explain the cause of the fire. She managed to escape from the burning building and saved several chickens from an outhouse, which also was burned.
